

Western Kentucky University Fringe Benefit Rates

For more information contact sponsored.programs@wku.edu

This information is for grant and contract proposals to detail the exact cost for each type of employee benefit. Fringe benefit rates for grant proposals are typically estimated based on the average salary in each employee category and are not meant to be exact calculations. When a proposal is awarded, the exact amount of each person's fringe benefits will be charged to the grant budget based on rates that are current at that time.
