Adjournment

Proposal Date: September 10, 2016

Potter College of Arts & Letters
Sociology Department
Proposal to Revise Course Title
(Consent Item)

Contact Person: Pavel Vasiliev, pavel.vasiliev@wku.edu, 745-3759

1. Identification of proposed course:

- 1.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: CRIM 448
- 1.2 Course title: Comparative Criminology
- 1.3 Credit Hours: 3

2. Proposed course title: International Justice and Crime

3. Proposed abbreviated course title: International Justice & Crime

4. Rationale for the revision of course title: The original course title - Comparative Criminology - was chosen by faculty because it was succinct while allowing faculty to include a wide array of material pertaining to the etiology of crime, conceptions of justice, and variations in social control across different societies. The change to the current title is more intuitively understandable and appealing to students and more clearly relays that the course compares systems of crime and justice across societies.

5. Proposed term for implementation: Fall of 2017

6. Dates of prior committee approvals:

Proposal to Revise Course Prerequisites
(Consent Item)

Contact Person: Andrew McMichael, andrew.mcmichael@wku.edu, 5.6538

- 1. Identification of course:
 - 1.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: HUM 240
(This course is equivalent to MATH 240)
 - 1.2 Course title: Geometry in Art and Architecture
- 2. Current prerequisites: Any Colonnade MATH course with a B or better or a MATH ACT of at least 24 or an MPE of 20; 21 hours of Foundations and Explorations courses, or junior status.
- 3. Proposed prerequisites: Any Colonnade Foundations MATH course with a B or better; 21 hours of Foundations and Explorations courses, or junior status.
- 4. Rationale for the revision of prerequisites: Colonnade courses must be open to ALL students, and any prerequisites for Connections courses must fall within the Colonnade Plan. An MPE score (which has an expiration date) may preclude some students from taking the course. Additionally, any future Connections courses with a MATH prefix should not serve as a prerequisite for MATH 240.
- 5. Effect on completion of major/minor sequence: None.
- 6. Proposed term for implementation: Fall 2017.
- 7. Dates of prior committee approvals:

Proposal to Create a New Course
(Action Item)

Contact Person: Kristi Godfrey-Hurrell, kristi.godfrey-hurrell@wku.edu, 270-745-4924

1. Identification of proposed course:

- 1.1. Course prefix and number: IECE 320
- 1.2. Course title: Introduction to Early Childhood Assessment
- 1.3. Abbreviated course title: Intro to Early Child Assess.
- 1.4. Credit hours: 3 Variable credit: No
- 1.5. Grade type: Standard letter grade
- 1.6. Prerequisite: SPED 331 Corequisites: None
- 1.7. Course description: Develop knowledge and skills of assessment with young children with and without disabilities and their families. Minimum of 30 hours of field experience required.

2. Rationale:

- 2.1. Reason for developing the proposed course: The Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education (IECE) program is based on personnel preparation standards of the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), Division of Early Childhood (DEC), National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), and the Kentucky IECE Teacher Standards in order to meet accreditation requirements. The CEC, NAEYC, and DEC standards have been revised since the previous IECE program revisions and have subsequently included greater emphasis on assessment of young children and the role of families in assessment. For example, the most recent version of the DEC Recommended Practices (2014) provides guidance regarding evidence-based practices in assessment. Additionally, the IECE program is required to address Kentucky certification requirements and regulations in emphasizing the role of assessment with regard to research and practice.
Currently, the FACS 294 course, Assessment for Young Children, is the required introductory assessment course for IECE majors, however, based on updates in standards, recommended practices, and state and national legislative mandates, the course content and 12 hours of unsupervised field experience no longer meets the needs of the IECE program. The IECE program prepares students to understand and administer screening assessment, use assessment results for further evaluation, and involve families in the assessment process. The proposed new course, IECE 320, will address new updates and requirements at both the state and national level. For example, the current state policy requires that children from birth to kindergarten (B-K) in Kentucky be screened for the purpose of identifying children at-risk of developmental delays, which may lead to further assessment or early intervention under the Kentucky System of Intervention – Response to Intervention (KSI-RTI); an additional area discussed in the new course.

- 2.2. Projected enrollment in the proposed course: Based on current enrollment, a total of 15 students per academic year is projected.
- 2.3. Relationship of the proposed course to courses now offered by the department: The School of Teacher Education (STE) offers several teacher education courses that address assessment for students from kindergarten through twelfth grade. The Special Education Program offers at least three courses for their majors (e.g., SPED 350 - Assessment in Special Education, SPED 318 - Assessment of Curriculum for Students with Moderate/Severe Disabilities, & SPED 430 - Diagnosis for Instructional Planning: Students with Mild Disabilities). Further, the IECE program offers IECE 324 - Advanced Assessment of Young Children for IECE majors who have completed an introductory course on assessment. The proposed IECE 320 course will address children B-K and will emphasis both typical and atypical development and the role of families while building on foundational content with diagnostic assessment, curriculum and assessment models, curriculum-based assessment, performance monitoring, and program evaluation. The proposed new course will serve as a building block for the current IECE 324 course.
- 2.4. Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other departments: The Communication Disorders program offers two courses for their major (e.g., CD 433 - Communication Evaluation in Autism Spectrum Disorders, CD 485 - Introduction to Assessment in Communication Disorders) focusing on language diagnostics and screenings. FACS 294 - Assessment for Young Children, currently taken by IECE undergraduate students, is an introductory assessment course covering children birth through five years of age; however, this course does not place emphasis on the legislative requirements for assessment in First Steps, public school preschool and kindergarten programs (essentially, Part B and Part C under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act). The proposed new course will address components that apply to the most recent state (e.g., KAR 3:410) and national legislation mandates (e.g., Part B & Part C), and policies (e.g., DEC & NAEYC) required in preparation for the IECE students. Lastly, students are required to have 200 field hours and students taking the new course will be expected to have 30 supervised field hours instead of the 12 unsupervised field hours required in the FACS 294 course.
- 2.5. Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other institutions: Kentucky universities which have an accredited IECE undergraduate degree program are identified in the chart below. Similar to WKU's program, IECE students are regularly evaluated on their teaching performance using a performance rubric aligned with the KY IECE Teacher Standards, CEC Initial Level Special Educator Preparation Standards, DEC Initial Special Education Early Childhood Specialty Set, and NAEYC Initial Standards for Early Childhood Professional Preparation Standards as pertains to assessment.

4. Rationale for the proposed program change:

The proposed revisions to the IECE undergraduate degree reflects the most recent updates from recommended practices and guidelines required under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA; 2004) legislation noted in the 2012 guidelines contained in the Division of Early Childhood (DEC), a subdivision of the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). Additionally, proposed revisions address and align with Kentucky’s IECE Teacher Standards, The InTASC Model of Core Teaching Standards (2013), community stakeholder needs, and recent graduate feedback.

- Change program sequence to allow student exposure to IECE courses earlier than the junior year; this will allow for IECE faculty to work on retention with students and begin to prepare students for student teaching.
- Add new course IECE 320 Introduction to Assessment
 - This course specifically addresses correlated national and state standards and practices in assessment with young children birth to kindergarten (B-K) with and without disabilities, delays, or risks. This is required preparation for students who will work in the field of early intervention and thus students are required to understand the assessment process beginning with Child Find and also address assessment legislation that relate to KY First Steps, preschool and IDEA Law.

- Add SPED 331 Early Childhood Education for Children with Disabilities
 - This course will complement the IECE program and build upon FACS 192 - Working with Young Children and Families. IECE faculty will use this course to emphasize atypical development and early intervention with students and create the foundation needed for future courses.
- Add IECE 423 Interdisciplinary Services for Young Children with Low Incidence Disabilities
 - This course is currently being offered as an elective for IECE students and we would like to require this course within the IECE degree path. Recent conversations with community stakeholders and graduates emphasized a gap in knowledge and skill of graduates when working with children who may have low incidence disability (e.g., autism spectrum disorder, orthopedic impairments) and their families. Additionally, per conversations and school/early intervention enrollment information, there has been an increase in children being referred for special education services in First Steps (e.g., early intervention) and preschool who may fit within this disability category within the area in which WKU serves.
- Remove FACS 294 Assessment of Young Children, LME 318 Children’s Literature, and PE 313 Motor Development. Removal of these courses allows the IECE program sequence to maintain the required 120 hours for degree completion. Content of these courses will be embedded within IECE coursework. Removal of these courses will not affect the requirements set forth by our standards.

 - 1.2 Course title: Geometry in Art and Architecture
2. Current prerequisites: Any Colonnade MATH course with a B or better or a MATH ACT of at least 24 or an MPE of 20; 21 hours of Foundations and Explorations courses, or junior status.
3. Proposed prerequisites: Any Colonnade Foundations MATH course with a B or better; 21 hours of Foundations and Explorations courses, or junior status.

1. Identification of proposed course:

- 1.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: AMS 368 M1
- 1.2 Course title: Problem Solving Module One
- 1.3 Abbreviated course title: Prob Solv Mod 1
(maximum of 30 characters or spaces)
- 1.4 Credit hours: 1 Variable credit No
- 1.5 Grade type: Standard letter grades.
- 1.6 Prerequisites: Junior status
- 1.7 Course description: An application oriented introduction to basic research of practical industrial problems. Development, information gathering, data collection, and literature review on real technological problems.

2. Rationale:

- 2.1 Reason for developing the proposed course: The AMS department wishes to offer the existing AMS 368 within a three modular, competency-based sequence, offered off-load through distance learning. This three-module format will make AMS 368 similar to, and compatible with, other three-module competency-based courses already existing in the department. These modules are to be taken sequentially. Success in all three will be equivalent to the existing AMS 368. AMS 368 M1 is the first of the three modules.
- 2.2 Projected enrollment in the proposed course: As this course is offered off-load, a maximum of 20 students will be allowed.
- 2.3 Relationship of the proposed course to courses now offered by the department: Content is approximately the same as the first third of AMS 368: Problem Solving.
- 2.4 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other departments: There is some similarity with undergraduate research methods courses offered in the curriculum; however, this course concentrates on the selection and data collection for problems found in technological and industrial settings.
- 2.5 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other institutions: Most universities offer basic research methods and some offer problem solving strategies, but few offer it using a competency-based, online format.

3. Discussion of proposed course:

- 3.1 Schedule type: L
- 3.2 Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, a student will be able to:

Proposal to Create a New Course
(Action Item)

Contact Person: Dr. Mark Doggett, mark.doggett@wku.edu, (270) 745-6951

1. Identification of proposed course:

- 1.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: AMS 368 M3
- 1.2 Course title: Problem Solving Module Three
- 1.3 Abbreviated course title: Prob Solv Mod 3
(maximum of 30 characters or spaces)
- 1.4 Credit hours: 1 Variable credit: No
- 1.5 Grade type: Standard letter grades.
- 1.6 Prerequisites: AMS 368 M2 with a grade of B or better.
- 1.7 Course description: Presentation of solutions for practical industrial problems. Comprehensive reporting and presentation of multiple approaches to real technological problems using scientific justification.

2. Rationale:

- 2.1 Reason for developing the proposed course: The AMS department wishes to offer the existing AMS 368 within a three modular, competency-based sequence, offered off-load through distance learning. This three-module format will make AMS 368 similar to, and compatible with, other three-module competency-based courses already existing in the department. These modules are to be taken sequentially. Success in all three will be equivalent to the existing AMS 368. AMS 368 M3 is the third of the three modules.
- 2.2 Projected enrollment in the proposed course: As this course is offered off-load, a maximum of 20 students will be allowed.
- 2.3 Relationship of the proposed course to courses now offered by the department: Content is approximately the same as the final third of AMS 368: Problem Solving.
- 2.4 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other departments: There is some similarity with other courses offered throughout the university's curriculum. However, this course concentrates on presenting information and recommendations for problems found in industrial settings.
- 2.5 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other institutions: Most universities offer similar content, but few offer it using a competency-based, online format.

3. Discussion of proposed course:

- 3.1 Schedule type: L
- 3.2 Learning Outcomes: Upon completion, students will be able to:
 - Demonstrate competency in developing solutions using multiple problem solving approaches
 - Refine and polish their professional presentation skills
- 3.3 Content outline:

- Inductive and deductive techniques
 - Morphological box
 - Tree diagram
 - Brainstorming
 - Solution tables
 - Matrix Diagram
 - Prioritization Matrices
 - PDPC Chart
 - Action plans and storyboards
 - Comprehensive final report
 - Introduction
 - Updated review of literature
 - Analysis of the problem or issue using the visual tools
 - Recommended solutions and actions using the tools
 - Summary results
 - Conclusion
 - Professional presentation
- 3.4 Student expectations and requirements: Complete a prescribed series of tasks, assignments, and tests to satisfy the required level of competency with course material. Students must earn a B or better to pass the course.
- 3.5 Tentative texts and course materials:

3. Rationale for the revision of course credit hours:

The CS Department has determined that the current two-hour course is not thorough enough to prepare students to be successful at the university and as CS majors. There is a need to increase practice (or hands-on) time on computer. Moreover, the WKU university experience course (UC 175) also has been changed to a three-hour course.

- 1.2 Course title: Implications of Research in FCS

2. Current prerequisites:

SOCL 300 or permission of instructor

3. Proposed prerequisites:

Junior standing or higher

4. Rationale for the revision of prerequisites:

SOCL 300 has been used as a prerequisite for FACS 399 (Implications of Research in FCS). A review of the curriculum revealed that the content in SOCL 300 needed to be successful in FACS 399 was also being taught during the early portions of the FACS 399 course. Removing SOCL 300 as a prerequisite will allow for students to continue to take FACS 399 and add another course relevant to their major. Students required to take FACS 399 (i.e., Child Studies and Family Studies majors) will be sufficiently prepared with foundational coursework by the time they reach junior standing. Thus the prerequisite of junior standing will be added.

4. Rationale for the revision of prerequisites:

After a thorough review of the curriculum, it was determined that the majority of the content of FACS 492 was duplicated in numerous other FACS courses, many of which are taken before FACS 492. Instead, students are sufficiently prepared to be successful in FACS 496 by completing FACS 191 (Child Development). As FACS 191 is a prerequisite for FACS 492, this change will not affect students as they progress through the FACS major or minor in Child Studies.

After a thorough review of the curriculum, it was determined that the majority of the content of FACS 492 was duplicated in numerous other FACS courses, including FACS 191 and FACS 297 in the child studies minor. Instead, students can now take an additional elective, providing students options to tailor the child studies minor to their professional and educational needs.

The minor in child studies includes the choice of 9 hours of approved FACS electives. Previously, no list of approved electives was approved through the curriculum process. Subsequently, unapproved courses are displayed on students' iCAP audit reports as available courses that have not been reviewed in a formal process. To correct students from completing unapproved electives, the only courses that are accepted as electives are FACS 311, FACS 391, FACS 393, FACS 395, FACS 422, FACS 495, FACS 496, FACS 497, and FACS 499. - 1.2 Course title: Prior Learning Portfolio Development
- 1.3 Credit hours: 3

2. Proposed course credit hours: 1-3 (variable and repeatable up to twice for a maximum of 3 hours)

3. Rationale for the revision of course credit hours:

This is the course used to help students prepare portfolios for Prior Learning Assessment. The course is not currently repeatable. As such, students have one shot only to complete prior learning assessment, which means that the portfolio projects become prohibitively large for a single semester, and students are obliged to take incompletes. In addition, students are currently limited by policy to two discipline areas per portfolio; repeating a one credit course would open up the possibility of petitioning for fewer hours in more disciplines, which would be more useful overall than the current arrangement.

Proposal to Create a New Course
(Action Item)

Contact Person: S. Ellen Godbey, Ed.D. sherrie.godbey@wku.edu, 0-2578

1. Identification of proposed course:

- 1.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: SUS 110
- 1.2 Course title: Advanced Reading & Vocabulary
- 1.3 Abbreviated course title: Advanced Reading & Vocabulary
- 1.4 Credit hours: 3 Variable credit (No)
- 1.5 Grade type: Standard Letter Grade
- 1.6 Prerequisites: Appropriate reading placement score or permission of Instructor.
Corequisites: None
- 1.7 Course Description: Introduction on how to read course textbooks and assessments, how to increase academic vocabulary, and how to navigate information technology with an emphasis on critical reading strategies.

2. Rationale:

- 2.1 Reasons for developing the proposed course: Senate Bill One mandates that we provide students who score below a 20 in reading on the ACT with a reading course during one of their first two semesters. Currently, students with an ACT reading score between 15-19 are being directed to take LTCY 199 while those with a reading score 14 and below take the non-credit-bearing DRDG 080C (see Reading Test Placement attachment). However, we are being encouraged on an institutional, state, and national level to serve students who have college-readiness needs with credit-bearing rather than developmental courses. The demand for these courses is high. This fall, there were 770 entering students with reading scores below 20 on the ACT. One hundred and eighty nine (189) of those students were enrolled in LTCY 199: most class sections were completely full. SUS, as the department that has been historically tasked to teach students with college readiness needs, is uniquely positioned and qualified to teach high risk students. Other reasons for developing the proposed course include:
 - 1) To help meet WKU's goal to retain underprepared students.
 - 2) To offer a reading course that accommodates students with disabilities, Cornerstone and non-Cornerstone students, and students whose first language is not English (ESL students).
 - 3) To offer a reading course that addresses critical reading and thinking strategies applicable to any course reading.

- 4) To offer a reading course that teaches students how to successfully read objective and subjective assessments.
 - 5) To offer a reading course that includes a heavy vocabulary and word parts component applicable across academic disciplines.
 - 6) To offer a reading course that introduces Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) elements using current research articles from multiple content areas.
 - 7) To offer a reading course that associates information technology across disciplines.
- 2.2 Projected enrollment in the proposed course: Three to four sections of 20 students per semester
- 2.3 Relationship of the proposed course to courses now offered by the department: SUS currently offers a non-credit bearing reading course (DRDG 080C) which serves students with reading entrance scores 14 and below. The proposed reading course would differ in that it includes a heavy college-level vocabulary and word parts component, it addresses how to successfully read objective and subjective assessments, it contains an in-depth information technology component, and it introduces the QEP elements through application of critical reading and thinking strategies to current research articles from various content areas. SUS 110 will serve students who have a reading ACT score of 14 and below or other appropriate placement score, but it could also function, if needed, to meet the Senate Bill One mandate to provide a reading course during one of the first two semesters for students who score below 20 on the ACT.
- 2.4 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other departments: The proposed SUS course is related to the LTCY 199 Reading: Evidence & Argument course, a course currently taken by students whose ACT entrance scores in reading are between 15 and 19 and will focus on the students LTCY cannot currently accommodate. (See attachment on need and capacity). LTCY 199 "...focuses on the importance of critical thinking, information literacy, academic and career development, and successful student practices." SUS 110 also focuses on critical reading and thinking strategies but includes reading assessments, navigating information technology, and building academic vocabulary.
- 2.5 Relationship of the proposed course to courses offered in other institutions: Many colleges and universities across the nation offer credit-bearing college reading courses. Community colleges have been offering reading at varying levels for years, but in 2009, state universities that were not already offering reading courses were required to accommodate students whose entrance reading scores were below 20. Eastern Kentucky University (EKU) offers a credit-bearing ENG 101R Reading, Writing, and Rhetoric (three credits), which develops "...critical reading skills while integrating and responding to varied sources; composing texts including summaries, analyses, evaluations, responses, and arguments..." Northern Kentucky University offers a three credit hour RDG 110 Critical Reading course that "...is designed to sharpen your critical reading and thinking abilities with practice in analysis, synthesis and evaluation of texts from a wide variety of topics...” Until 2009, UK had not offered reading labs or co-requisites for reading. As a result of Senate Bill One, UK developed and offered 14 credit-bearing Reading Labs paired with content courses. Currently, UK offers a UK 120 APP Reading paired reading course “...designed to enhance students’ mastery of critical reading.” Murray State University (MSU) requires students to take two courses if their ACT entrance scores in reading fall below 20: REA 100 (one credit) and REA 120 (one credit). REA 120 is taken only in conjunction with a specific University Studies requirement. The SUS 110 reading course is equivalent to college reading courses offered at other Kentucky state universities and is well able to serve at least some of the student population not currently being served as mandated by Senate Bill One.

4. Rationale for the proposed program change:

Our current listing has proven limiting to students, who sometimes have trouble finding an approved elective that will fit their schedules. We therefore wish to increase the number of options available to them. All of the courses bolded and added to the list of approved electives are appropriate for the major; respective departments have been consulted.

Proposal to Create a New Academic Policy

(Consent Item)

Second Reading

Contact Person: Dennis George dennis.george@wku.edu, 745-3570

1. Identification of proposed policy: Creation of a policy that would extend the “Fully Certified” category of the Kentucky General Education Transfer Policy to students transferring to WKU after completing the General Education requirements for a bachelor’s degree at a regionally-accredited institution that is closing or has closed.

2. Catalog statement of proposed policy:
 - 2.1 Proposed catalog policy:

General Education Transfer Policy for Institutions that close (with mark-ups)
Students who have completed [all] General Education requirements for a Bachelor’s degree at [from] a regionally-accredited institution that is closing or has closed [are considered to] will have fulfilled all WKU Colonnade General Education requirements ~~upon transfer.~~

General Education Transfer Policy for Institutions that Close (minus mark-ups)
Students who have completed all General Education requirements for a Bachelor’s degree from a regionally-accredited institution that is closing or has closed are considered to have fulfilled all WKU Colonnade General Education requirements. These credit hours are to be drawn from and include at least one course from each of the following areas: humanities/fine arts, social/behavioral sciences, and natural science/mathematics.

 - 2.2 Proposed catalog section:
It is proposed that this policy appear in the “Transfer of Credits” section immediately following the “General Education Transfer Policy from States other than Kentucky.”

3. Rationale for proposed policy:
Over the last two years WKU has seen five institutions of higher education close within the region. While we have tried to recruit these students to finish their degrees at WKU, many would have had to complete a large number of credit hours to fulfill Colonnade requirements, and those who already had completed general education at their previous institution were understandably reluctant to come to WKU and have to take different General Education requirements. The purpose of this policy is to extend the “Fully Certified” classification to students who have completed a general education program at an institution that is closing or has closed.

This policy is consistent with the WKU Challenging the Spirit Consent Plan (2012-13 to 2017-18), which lists as one of its strategies to “Continue involvement and leadership in statewide initiatives to make transfer more seamless.” The proposed policy provides a more seamless transfer pathway for students that are impacted by the closing of a regionally-accredited institution and have already completed a bachelor’s general education program. This policy will also facilitate WKU’s efforts to increase its non-traditional student population. Finally, this policy will make WKU a preferred transfer destination for students affected by the closing of an institution of higher education.

4. Impact of proposed policy on existing academic or non-academic policies:

4.1 Impact on policies:

The proposed policy only extends to regionally-accredited institutions that close. This policy does not affect other policies.

4.2 Impact on populations that may be affected:

This policy affects only those transfer students that have completed a general education Program for a bachelor’s degree at a regionally-accredited institution that is closing or has closed.

5. Proposed term for implementation: Spring 2017

1. Catalog statement of proposed policy:

Residence Requirements—The minimum residence requirement for the bachelor's degree is 25% of the minimum number of semester hours required in the student's degree program through instruction at WKU. The minimum residence requirement for an associate degree is 25% of the minimum number of semester hours required in the student's degree program through instruction at WKU. These credit hours are to be drawn from and include at least one course from each of the following areas: humanities/fine arts, social/behavioral sciences, and natural science/mathematics. One-third of the hours in the specialty must be earned at WKU. A student is permitted to transfer a maximum of six semester hours toward a certificate program.

2.1 Course prefix (subject area) and number: Course number/prefix combinations may be used only once, and may not be recycled; please check with the registrar's office to get a list of available, valid course numbers.

2.2 Course title: 30 character limit, including spaces and punctuation. (CIF form has no entry for abbreviated titles, but states "Title (as it should appear on the transcript; maximum of 30 letters & spaces)).

2.3 Credit hours/Variable credit: Indicate the total number of credit hours this course awards. If you're proposing a course with variable credit options, explain that here.

2.4 Repeatability: If the course is not repeatable for credit, simply indicate with N/A. If the course is meant to be repeatable, insert here this exact phrase, indicating the number of times a student can enroll for degree credit beyond the first enrollment, and the total maximum hours for which a student may receive degree credit for this course: Repeatable ___ for a total of ___ credits. For example, a proposal for a three credit course that a student could take three times would include the phrase Repeatable twice for a total of 9 credits.

2.5 Course Catalog Description: This is the brief, concise, general course description that will be published in the university course catalog and all its iterations; please refer to WKU course catalog for appropriate style and format examples.

2.6 Prerequisite/Corequisite courses: If none, simply indicate with N/A (Not Applicable). If prerequisite and/or corequisite courses are required:

- Taking care to distinguish between prerequisites corequisite courses, identify them by subject area prefix and course number only; do not include course titles. Be sure to indicate
- List only immediate prerequisites. (Do not list prerequisites for other prerequisite courses.)
- If you wish to propose prerequisite and/or corequisite courses offered by a department/unit other than the one identified in your proposed course prefix, the head of that other department/unit must be consulted.

2.8 Other Special Course Requirements: Things such as required specialized equipment and/or supplies, off-campus travel and extra-classtime activities should be noted here. If this does not apply, simply indicate with N/A (Not Applicable).

Section 3: Description of proposed course

3.1 Course Content Summary: Explain, briefly and succinctly, the subject matter of the course, and the approach/methodology that will be used to explore it.

3.2 Learning Outcomes: These should be stated in terms of what new knowledge and/or skills students should be able to demonstrate upon successfully completing this course. What will they know, and/or know how to do as a result of successfully completing this course? Present these learning outcomes as a bulleted list, or series of brief paragraphs, predicated with “Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to...” (Please note that this item is concerned with learning outcomes, not course content, which should appropriately be explained in item 3.1, above.)

3.3 Assessment/Evaluation: Describe generally how student’s achievement of the learning goals described in section 3.2 (above) will be assessed and evaluated. This should not be a detailed list of every assessment planned in a given semester, but rather a concise, general explanation of the types of assessments that will be employed in the course.

Section 4: Rationale

4.1 Reason for developing this proposed course: Explain how and why this proposed course is desirable and/or necessary, and how it relates to departmental/college/university wide goals and standards. Please note: while references to course content may be included here for clarity’s sake, this section is primarily meant to explain why this course is needed/desirable, not what the course is about, which should have been explained thoroughly in section 3: Description of Proposed Course above.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING NEW COLONNADE PROGRAM COURSES

To be included in the WKU Colonnade general education program, courses must meet criteria unique to that program, and as such, the Colonnade program has its own distinct course approval process; new courses being designed and proposed specifically for inclusion in WKU Colonnade program must include that information here, in item 4.1, and must be pre-approved by the Colonnade Committee as meeting their unique requirements prior to being acted on by the university's Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. For information, proposal forms and instructions unique to the Colonnade approval process, please refer to the Faculty Resources page of the WKU Colonnade Program Website.

- 4.2 Relationship to similar courses offered by other university departments/units: Do any other courses already being offered by other university departments/units share content with this proposed course? If so, have those units been notified/consulted in regards to this proposed course? Explain how this course is unique in its presentation/exploration of that shared content.

Section 5: Projected Enrollments/Resources

- 5.2 How many sections of this course per academic year will be offered?

- 5.3 How many students per academic year are expected to enroll?

- 5.4 How were these projections calculated? Explain any supporting evidence/data you have for arriving at these projections.

- 5.5 Proposed method of staffing: Will additional staff be required in order to offer this course according to the enrollment projections indicated in items 5.1-4? If so, what actions are being undertaken to secure the necessary additional personnel? If current staffing is sufficient, explain any adjustments necessary to current staffing patterns/teaching loads to accommodate this new course.

- 5.6 Instructional technology resources: Are the unit's current instructional technology resources sufficient to support this course? If not, what additional resources are needed, and what actions are being undertaken to upgrade those resources?

If so, a completed Library Resources Form must accompany this proposal when submitted to the appropriate College Curriculum Committee. (In order to allow sufficient time for library review, this Library Resources Form must be submitted to the appropriate collection development librarian at least three working days prior to the College curriculum committee at which the proposal will be considered.)

Section 6: Proposed term for implementation: What semester/year will this course “come on line” and be available to students?

Section 7: Approval Flow Dates: The committee approvals needed for this proposal appear in hierarchical, chronologically required order, however... not all new course proposals require all of these committee approvals. Committee approvals needed by all new course proposals appear in boldface type on this form. Questions about other committee approvals should be directed to those committees. If this proposal does not require approval from one of the committees listed here, simply delete that approval line.

Section 8: Supplemental Documentation
