

Gender & Women's Studies
Department of Diversity & Community Studies
Western Kentucky University

Graduate Teaching Assistantship in Gender & Women's Studies.

Primary Responsibilities for GTA

- Work with director on GWS Program development
- Sit in on GWS 200 classes in preparation for next year teaching
- Meet bi-weekly with GWS instructor of record (to be determined)
- Assist in planning events and hosting guest speakers
- Assist GWS faculty as needed (research projects, teaching)
- Help with publicity (web, email, campus) and program promotion

Learning Outcomes for GA

- Improved leadership and organizational skills
- Improved community-based research skills
- Greater knowledge of content expectations for Intro to GWS
- Training in teacherly activities
- Increased knowledge of program development
- Increased research skills

Funding: $10,000 -$12,000 for fall and spring 2014-2015. Additional tuition likely.

We are especially interested in applicants who wish to pursue the MA in Social Responsibility & Sustainable Communities. Relevant websites:

Gender & Women's Studies

http://www.wku.edu/womensstudies/academics/graduate\_certificate.php

Social Responsibility & Sustainable Communities

<http://www.wku.edu/dcs/master-of-arts-in-social-responsibility-and-sustainable-communities/index.php>

For more information contact Dr. Jane Olmsted 270.745-5787